Dear Jack,

Thank you again for a very pleasant and stimulating luncheon last Friday.

I'd like to confirm my request that you come out and speak to our employees. Tuesday, June 12th, would fit our schedule best; however, if this date conflicts with your schedule, we have some flexibility on an alternate date.

We would like you to speak on whatever you think would be of most interest and hopefully to engage in a question and answer dialogue for a total of about 1-1/4 hours. Our programs usually start at three o'clock. I'd be very grateful if you could do this and know our employees would enjoy it and benefit from it. If you agree, I'll ask [redacted] Special Programs Officer, [redacted] to work out the details with your office.

Again, thanks and warm regards.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Mr. Jack Anderson
